“ Today marks 8 years since you passed, dad. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you, in some way or another. Either through a moment of joy or laughter or a poignant memory of a cherished time we spent together. Jan has culled dozens of pictures of you and have them displayed throughout our house. Jan is really good about looking after my heart. There's nowhere I can turn that I don't see you and mom. You're always with me, in my heart. I've been good, these years, because I knew you and mom are together but today, for some reason, I feel the pang of absence stronger than anytime since 2011.

“ My deepest sympathy to you. I took care of Alice at Barron Care & Rehab. She was great, you would have never known her age. She had so much to share and I enjoyed caring for her. Fondest memory was praying with her about 2 or 3 am. She has put her mark on my heart and I will remember her forever.

“ Alice was my second mother for 20 years. When Bette worked 20 hours per week, I was lucky to have Alice as my babysitter and guide. Once when I was 6 years old I ran away to her house (4 blocks away) not once, but twice. All three of the Ellis' owe half our upbringing to the firm hand and large hugging arms of Alice. The salt and pepper set collections in the front room glass cases and of course her gorgeous plants worthy of a florist tended in the front window. And then there was smell of fine grain woods from Paul's clockshop in the basement. That's what I remember..... Love Janie
