“ I am truly sorry to learn of your loss. Death is never an easy thing to cope with, even when our loved one lives a long life. Rest assured that God promises to end all human suffering, including death. He then gives us a hope of being able to see our lost loved ones again, right here on earth. As we look to the future with hope, may the many loving memories strengthen the family in the days to come.- Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8.

“ Dear Jack:

First, please accept my very deepest condolences to you and your family, especially your mother.

I remember you telling me stories about your father's construction company, and how that knowledge and experience has helped you in your own field. Our fathers have a way of doing that, and my father, at 86, still gives me guidance and wisdom. I just wish I could do half the things he did, with so much more learned skill that I could ever accomplish on my own. They really are and were "the greatest generation."

There are dozens of courtrooms, chambers, offices, homes, renovations and buildings that you can point to with a sense of pride and know how very proud and honored your father would be of you.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely,

John J. Myers
