“ Jack will be greatly missed. He & Nell were long time members of the American Legion Post 50 & Legion Auxiliary Unit 50. Jack was faithful in attending meetings and supporting our Veterans. God Bless you Jack, now you will walk the heavens with Nell.

“ Rest in peace, my precious brother. I treasure the memories we shared during the two days I spent with you recently. You and Nell were such an important part of my life and I will always be grateful for the love we shared. You were so blessed to have Russ and Amanda to love and care for you, as stressed and exhausted as they surely were, they never wavered or failed to give one hundred percent of their love and dedication to both you and Nell as you stepped from the shadows of this world into the blessed light of our Heavenly Father. We shared the loss of our six siblings and I'm now alone of the eight, and my heart is breaking. I shall miss you as much as I miss the others, but when we meet in memory our laughter will be joyful and our love stronger. Your sis, Vicki

What a precious child of the King. No one knew the Bible better. Tell Nell hello for us all, dear friend.

Mr. Jack was always an encourager and never failed to say something positive to me each Wednesday Night at our Church Dinners! On the nights that I would play the piano during dinner, he would request hymns that he said were his favorite. I will miss his strong witness and stand for his Loving Savior! RIP Mr. Jack!

Dr. Bradberry and I never got to meet "Papa" but the love we saw through Jenny and the family let us know what a special person he has been in their lives. Praise God for men like that who leave a sweet legacy of family and such special memories for their grandchildren..and great grands! We know Papa will be greatly missed but rejoice that we know that he is home!

We will miss our brother Jack, a constant at Flat Creek Baptist Church. His love and knowledge of God's word was an inspiration to those who knew him and loved him. He was an example of "hiding His words in his heart". We will meet again at the Lord's table. Doug and Mary Lou Grissom
