“ I was so sad to hear of Jack's passing. He was a great story teller and Cliff and I loved hearing him tell of his railroad days. He had not been well for quite some time but I never heard him complain. He inspires me. I loved him and he will be missed.

To Pat, the children and grandchildren, Cliff and I offer our sincere condolences. Jack was such a great guy... a husband, father and grandpa to be proud of. Seek comfort in memories of good tiimes spent together. One day you will be together again.

Love,

“ Pat, we are so sorry for your loss. We had many hours of fun with you and Jack while we were Square Dancing. We still remember how jovial Jack always was and he always had a new joke to tell. I especially remember the time we were dancing and you lost your petticoat. Your hardly missed a beat as you stepped out of it. We also remember the visits you gave us free to Calloway Gardens. Jack was a great mechanic and helped me out a few times when I needed a hand. I'm sorry we drifted so far apart in the last few years but we still think of you and we will miss Jack very much. “ Jack had some great jokes, all clean. I still use one about "Waking up Grumpy". When I tell it I always remember Jack's smile. In a small way, It keeps his memory alive. Thanks Jack.
