“ Jackie was my 1st cousin. We grew up together. I am three years older. When we were little she couldn't say my name which is Charlotte so she called me "car". She was more like a sister to me than a cousin. During World War II we all lived together in my Grandmothers house. The men were in the War. She was the most generous person I have ever known. I have known her to take Thanksgiving plates of food to her elder neighbors. I loved her dearly. Charlotte Irvine, Powder Springs, GA.
