“ Karen and the Labar, Wallace and Fuller families, I am very sorry. I pray that you will find comfort and calm in the midst. That the wonderful memories you have of Jake, his tremendous love for all of you, the promise of heaven and seeing him again, will bring you a peace that passes understanding. Lord, I come to you in the name of Jesus and ask you to cover them with your love and blessed assurance they will be reunited again, in heaven with Jake. Lord comfort this family and his children, be present in their greatest time of need. I love you sweet sister in The Lord.
