“ I will always remember Jackie as being beautiful, kind, gracious and a true professional when it came to real estate. She helped my husband and me buy our first house and even surprised us by reducing her commission. My condolences to all the family. I pray for the peace and comfort of the Holy Spirit for all of you.

“ She gave me my first real office job. She tutored me in proper office etiquette. She entrusted me to sit with Robin and Steve when they were young. She was one of mom's most special friends. She helped Chris and I purchase our first home. Never a harsh word was heard from this classy lady. She has endured much and has gone on to her final reward. Sending hugs to the Davis family.
