

Jake Peter Whatley

November 24, 2003 - June 2, 2021

Jake “Mr. Big “Peter Whatley born November 24, 2003. Survived by his mother Nimfa A. Whatley, father Gregory Whatley, brother Nikko, sisters Gia and Zara. He passed on June 1, 2021 after a drowning accident in Chattahoochee River with his friends. His devotion and love of God and respect to everyone, exceptional talent, academic excellence, lightning speed energy, ability to touch everyone’s heart, care to animals, a drive to always do the best, adventurous, determination to live life to the fullest day after day who wants everything to be “big” and the word “can’t” is not an option, his unstoppable love to gymnastics and last but not the least his eye popping love of Wendy’s “ large baconator fries, son of baconator and large vanilla milk shake” seals the deal. He is a wonderful son, brother, grandson, grand nephew, nephew, cousin, godfather, friend, student and mentor who is loved by everyone and most of all God’s greatest gift that anyone and any parent could ever ask for. He wants people to see the life he lived.

Jake, you will always be remembered and we love you always and forever “anakko”! In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Our Lady of Mercy Catholic School, 861 GA-279, Fayetteville, GA 30214.

“ I met Jake when he and my daughter, Talayah were 5th grade classmates at OLV. My first thought was...” Who is this little boy with all this hair 😊?” Over time, I watched him become the most kind-hearted, conscientious and talented young man! To honor Jake’s memory, Talayah and I chose “ Dreams From the Heart Flowers” because he “Will always be a part of our Hearts”! We honor Jake’s short but We’ll Lived Life! The Lord called Jake home, but we are left with the gift of the best memories in exchange! Nim and Greg... please know that you have my family’s continued prayers and support! Please remember you have friends that care.... and I’m one of them!..... Tracie

“ Sincere condolences to the family and friends of Jake Whatley. My boys are gymnasts at Amplitude and over the years we had the pleasure of watching Jake compete. What a talented and strong young man! At state competition this year, I got to see him perform a beautiful floor routine. My heart is broken for his family his friends and the entire gymnastics community. He was surely a rising star. May he now rest in eternal peace.
