

James Hency Cox

October 31, 1930 - February 13, 2020

On February 13, 2020, James Hency Cox left his earthly home to join God's heavenly choir. Mr. Cox was 89 years old and had lived in Fairburn, Georgia for most of his life. He was born in Cleburne County Alabama, one of eleven children, to Irvin Daniel and Tommie Lee Cox, but moved as a young man to Georgia, where he eventually started his own business, Fairburn Printing and Office Supplies. Mr. Cox ran this business for more than 50 years, becoming a respected member of the local business community and contributing greatly to the financial well-being of his many employees during this time. He also was well known for his personal generosity to local schools, churches, and others who might need a helping hand. His kind spirit and unfailing affability will be remembered by those who participated in the Old Campbell County Days parades, attended his singing at area convalescent homes, or worshipped with him at Antioch Baptist Church. His bluegrass-inspired a cappella vocals - with his occasionally eccentric, but always entertaining, sense of timing - were always in great demand and without equal.

Mr. Cox is survived by his wife of 67 years, Patricia L. Cox; his sister, Carolyn Williamson; his six children (and their spouses), Debbie Calvert (Warren), Randy Cox (Kathy), Pam Jarrard (Eddie), Cindy Keene (Jason), Lisa Dunlap (Robert), Ricky Cox (Ylisheva); 16 grandchildren; and 25 great grandchildren. Mr. Cox's homecoming service will be held at Parrott Funeral Home, located at 8355 Senoia Road, Fairburn, Georgia 30213 on Monday, February 17, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. with Pastor John Newton officiating. Interment will follow at Holly Hill Memorial Park. Those wishing may sign the online guestbook at www.parrottfuneralhome.com. The family will receive friends Sunday evening from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. at Parrott Funeral Home and Crematory, 770-964-4800.

“ The Lord reaches down and picks the very best and James was one of God's favorites!

When we first began printing "part-time" in the basement of our home (our specialty was index tabs), James would make the negatives we needed. At that time, his print shop was located behind his current shop - Fairburn Printers and Office Supplies.

But James was more than just a businessman, his first concern was the welfare of his customers. They were not just customers, he considered them all "friends."

God gave James the job of lifting others up and he was faithful to that task! His joy was in making others "joyful."

We have all lost a "Best Friend," and our only consolation is that we'll be together again when Jesus calls us home.

“ Our church Fellowship Baptist Chapel will always appreciate Mr Cox's letting our church Print the inside of our church bulletins for a nickle each one. We were just getting started and Preacher Bobo had us start using the chapel of Holy Hill Funeral Home. He let us do that until we could afford to do it in our church. Very much appreciate Mr Cox. Randy also.was there working. From Fellowship Baptist Chapel our sympathy to the family.

“ My family has many, many wonderful memories of Mr. Cox. Not only was he a favorite and respected local business man, he was our friend and mentor in a huge variety of ways. He was always helpful, interested in what we needed, and without fail, could find what we needed in his store. He inspired his employees, most of whom were his children, to treat us customers as well as he did. We send our love and sympathy to his family.

“ Uncle James was like the head of the whole family. He was always keeping everyone in touch. He gave me my first job and I learned so much from him about work, life, and family. Everyone always respected him for the great person he was and how he treated people. Our deepest condolences go out to the whole family.

“ Mr. Cox was an amazing friend. I loved to talk with him and hear his contagious laughter. He always had a sweet smile and hard work ethic. It was an honor to call him friend.

“ We at Cedar Grove Music just want to share with you what a joy it was to have Mr. Cox come to Cedar Grove and participate in our music. Everyone enjoyed his singing and he was a very important part of our group. He hasn't been able to come in sometime very often, but He was and is an Important part of our group. Your entire family is in our thoughts and prayers.
