“ So many years of knowing James and many memories of good times in the past. Beginning back at Oakland City Baptist Church in the 60's. Remaining friends for almost 60 years. I'm sure he let Maureen and so many others who are in Heaven know when he arrived. Sending condolences to Evelyn and all of his grown children and grandchildren that will be missing him.

“ James was one of the nicest guys I have ever known. Always had that sweet smile and positive spirit even when he was facing the most difficult times. Love he and Evelyn and I am the fortunate one for being their friend.
