“ I was privileged to share a Monday Morning Bible with Jim and 4 or 5 other guys. We shared many blessings and heartaches over the years. It was difficult to watch Jim as he went downhill over the last year or so. Jim was always the evangelist. He would share the message of Christ with anyone he came in contact with. After our Monday morning meetings he would usually go to Walmart where he would share the word with the Walmart employees. He was not bashful when it came to sharing the gospel. Several months ago, Jim started us on a study of the Holy Spirit by Billy Graham. We will continue that study and think of Jim as we discuss what Billy Graham is saying to us. Love Jim and Carol, too. Miss you already, Jim. Buddy

“ I will remember his welcoming smile as he made his rounds in the upstairs balcony. He made us feel welcome and loved. Jesus gained an amazing man and the world lost a loving soul! God Bless his sweet family

“ My brother was a great believer. He loved his church and family. We fought a lot when we were kids. After he joined the Air Force at 17, we didn't see each other very much. When we did get together, he was always positive about everything he got involved with whether it was wine, Dale Carnegie, Amway, golf or religion. I will miss him very much. He was a good man. And to Carol, their sons and family, remember the good times and depend on your friends to get you through the hard times. Sorry I won't be there for you. Love you.

“ So many good memories of Jim, but the one I remember most is his gift of vision. When others just couldn't see how things would work out, Jim was right there with a positive attitude. He will be missed!

“I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.
