

James Larry Lynn

November 23, 1940 - May 25, 2026

James Larry Lynn, affectionately known as Larry, was born on November 23, 1940, in Atlanta, Georgia, and peacefully passed away on May 25, 2026, in Tyrone, Georgia, at the age of 85.

Larry was a man of vibrant personality, known for his adventurous spirit and love for the great outdoors. He found joy in traveling, hunting, and embracing the beauty of nature. As an esteemed businessman and entrepreneur, Larry was the proud owner of Central Builders Supply, where he built a lasting legacy through hard work and dedication.

For over 40 years, Larry was a faithful member of Flat Creek Baptist Church, where he formed many cherished friendships and strengthened his faith. His commitment to his community and church was unwavering, and he was respected and admired by all who knew him.

Larry was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Ernest and Ruth Lynn, and his dear sisters, Joan Mullis and Judy Lynn. He leaves behind a loving family to cherish his memory: his devoted daughter Laurie Lynn and his treasured granddaughter Megan Browder. He is also survived by his brother Gene and sister-in-law Gloria Lynn, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Larry's warmth and kindness extended beyond his family, enveloping his longtime and beloved friends: Marshae and Matthew Tucker, Gerald Whalen, Ronnie and Linda Adams, and Tony Edison. Their companionship enriched his life and provided him with countless moments of joy and laughter.

The family extends their heartfelt gratitude to Davita Healthcare in Peachtree City and to Deborah Reyes for their compassionate care and support during Larry's final days.

Larry Lynn leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and cherished memories that will forever remain in the hearts of those who were privileged to know him.
