“ I was sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Mock. Jimmy coached me and my brother, Rodney, in both football and baseball at Duncan Park. We also went to school with his children in Fairburn. Jimmy gave a lot to the community and took time to teach valuable life lessons to a lot of kids he helped grown into respectable men. I look back and value the time and lessons he shared with me. He was great man.....

“ I am so sorry to see Jimmy has died. I can truly say I know what you are going through. Jerry died last November and Matt died on Father's Day this year. Only a lot of prayer and faith can get us all through the loss of someone we love and cherish. My prayer is for all of you to have the peace The Comforter brings as this time passes and the days ahead seem long and lonely. I remember the good times we all had when the kids were young. Seems so long ago, but the memories are precious. God bless you all.
