“ James and Ruth were a big part of my life growing up. They were devoted to each other and to their church. James always stood firm in his Christian belief. They faced many tragic events in their life, but, they stayed strong. God blessed him with a loving family and friends. Praying for all the family.

“ I am so sorry to read this and it makes my heart sad. He and Ruth were fine people and are missed dearly. I worked with Ruth for years in preschool and she loved teaching class with the flannel board. James NEVER failed to pat Ruth's shoulder and place his arm around her shoulder during the church service. If we could all have such a loving husband, we would never need anything else. Even through my sadness, I do have to chuckle a bit when I think of him putting his hearing aid in and turning up and it would make a loud piercing shrill! I know right now Ruth and James are celebrating in heaven.
