

James G. Stock, Jr.

January 21, 1958 - September 24, 2019

James Stock passed away September 24, 2019. He is survived by his beloved wife of 40 years, Lynn Stock. James was a loving father of two daughters, Ryan Heeb (Jonathan) and Katie Bailey (William); Proud "PAPA" to five grandchildren Avery, Jackson and Miles Heeb and William and Madelyn James Bailey; Adoring Aunt Joyce Rodgers (Jack) and devoted cousins, John and Dawn Rodgers. He was also a brother in law, Uncle and friend.

James is remembered by so many as simply "Jim Stock," a hard working, selfless man that would give the shirt off his back to any one that needed it. Jim was a son to his mother and father in law, and a father to his son in laws. He was a pillar for his wife, a rock for his daughters, and a very proud "PAPA" as referred to by his grandchildren. He would encourage, guide, and help anyone that needed it and always seemed to have the answers. If peace was needed, Jim would make sure it happened. To know Jim Stock was to love Jim Stock who's only concerns in life were his family, his friends, and keeping people happy. While the void left in this world by his passing will never be filled, his beloved family takes solace in knowing that there are so many that were lucky enough to have shared this wonderful man.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday, October 2, 2019 at 3 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home. Those wishing may sign the online guestbook at www.parrottfuneralhome.com. “ I just read Jim's obit. What a wonderful tribute to such an awesome man. It truly says everything about him that we all cherished. If only we could all be like Jim Stock, what a great, peaceful world this would be. It is an honor and a privilege to have known him and be his friend. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Lynn and family.

“ Lynn, while the time of our friendship with Jim was way too brief, he will never be forgotten! We made some wonderful memories with you both and he has been an inspiration through his battle with meso. Even in that adversity, he continued to be strong and lead us with his grace and dignity. We are so sorry for your loss and for the loss that Katie and Ryan, along with their families, are feeling...he was the best kind of family man...always could be counted on to be there! He was a wonderful example of a great man! XO...JJ and Mike

“ My precious nephew Jim, you left us too soon. However, our hearts are filled with memories of you that will be cherished and will never be forgotten. I often reflect upon the summer that you spent with us in Canada and how you spent it fishing/playing with Jack. Watching you grow from a child into a successful adult, was a privilege that your Uncle Jack and I will never take for granted. Being able to witness your performance and passion in sports was an honor. My heart is heavy as I write this, filled with sorrow and sadness. I will cherish and reflect upon the years that we had spent together. Knowing that you knew how much you were loved by me, provides me with comfort during this difficult time. Death ends a life but not our relationship and shared love. Love you to pieces, Aunt Joyce Rodgers

“ A wise philosopher once stated that: "Life is about the journey and not the destination." Within his journey through life, "Uncle" Jim exemplified courage, resilience, tenacity, integrity, dignity, love, and complete/total generosity. Although Uncle Jim was many things too many people, he will forever be recognized as a true inspiration and a profound teacher, within my life. Uncle Jim was always focused on attending to the needs of others, while exhibiting complete selflessness. Apart from attending to the needs of his friends and family members at the weekend barbecues, Uncle Jim attended to the needs of his country while serving as a U.S. Marine and of his community, while serving as an Atlanta Police Officer. "Not every legend is a myth, some are flesh and blood, walking among us. Legends are not so much born, as they are built. Legends are champions that grow, win, and conquer challenges." I am truly honored to have known the legend and legacy that Uncle Jim was and is. Rest in peace. Love, Colton Rodgers

“ My sincerest condolences to the Stock family. Stock was my Atlanta Police Academy classmate. I have many memories of him, and he truly made an impact on me. Everyone looked to him as a father figure in our academy class and he was lovingly known as "Papa Stock". I will remember the twinkle in his eye as he would chuckle and the positivity he exuded. You are loved and deeply missed. Rest easy my brother in blue. We will take it from here. 🖤💙🖤

“ Time to Rest In Peace and watch over your beautiful family, you have inspired so many people in your life, how you always took the high road speaking no ill will towards anyone, I was there watching how you handled being diagnosed, treatments never ever complaining about pain, discomfort and suffering you endured to the end. You still to the last day worried about your family, it was never about you. Family was always first which paid off having Ryan and Katie, along with 5 beautiful grandkids who loved there papa. I am truly humbled and proud that you always looked at me as your little brother, we had a special bond that I will miss for the rest of my life. Your family will forever miss the steadfast guidance and peace you gave them, but your example of perseverance will help them through this difficult time and the memories you gave will help them through life. I love you Semper Fi Jackie and Dawn

“ We were blessed with sharing Thanksgiving with Jim when he was in San Antonio for training with his dog. My fondest memory is of Jim in my apron in my kitchen slicing 2 turkeys. I didn't remember he was a pro of a butcher. He was in his glory. Your right his family was his world. And I'm honored to have called him my friend. We shared so many stories that weekend. My love and prayers, Dinah Taylor.
