“ Never pictured life without you or that it'd be this hard. My heart's forever broken .. it's tearing me apart. I don't know what to do or even what to say. I just feel lost and broken...in every single way.

-You were the best pops a spoiled rotten princess could have ever asked for. Please watch over mamal, she needs you the most. I'll forever miss "shaving" with you... I'll forever miss everything about you pop.. everything!

Love you so much pop..more than you'll ever know. 😞

I love you Mamal and I hope Pops wraps his arms around you tight and puts your mind at ease. I know this is hard for you and my heart hurts for you. I wish I could take that pain away so you didn't have to feel it. We will make it through this, one day at a time.

“ To the entire Stover family. This man was a "Jewel" to all who knew him. He was as honest as to who he was and never tried to be anyone else. I truly enjoyed our "Senior Days" together at Palmetto Baptist. When the men would get together for lunch, Ronald would always add so much to our total group. I will always remember his as "genuine". Jeannine and I are praying together for you all. With Jesus as Ronald's Savior, we all know where he is today.
