“ I visited with Dot at the big centennial birthday party at the County Fair in July and noted she had lost weight, but her mind was perfect. I had just visited her house in Cumberland for the Estate sale, and told her about how much I liked the home...in fact I have always thought it is a perfect place to live ! She was glad to talk about it and told me of remodeling they had done there. I also gave her a report on the new female pastor at the Methodist church, and she was interested in that and asked appropriate questions. Just this week I attempted to locate her facility to bring her some photos from the Fair that her visitors could see, but then learned she had passed away. I didn't know her well, but in the past had sat near her at a luncheon at the church and we had visited then. She was such a neat lady ! No matter their age, it's not easy to lose a loved one; Thinking of YOU today.
