“ Uncle James was my great uncle, the brother of my grandmother Annie Yarbrough Cox, and was very special to me, and to my Dad and sister. He told us many loving stories and memories of Annie, who we were never able to know ourselves, and we will forever be so grateful for that. Much love to all the family. -- Sonja Cox

“ Granddaddy James took me on a trip to California when I was around 11 years old. It was always so much fun to spend time with him and I will never forget his jokes and warm personality. I love you Granddaddy!

“ What an amazing man! We have enjoyed getting to know Mr. James and hearing of his WW II and flying adventures. He was always ready with a smile and a positive attitude. He has been a wonderful friend and companion for our stepmother, Jane Holland. We three Holland girls send our deepest sympathy to the three Yarborough girls and all your family in the loss of your dear father.

With love in Christ, Debbie Holland Harris, Terri Holland, and Lisa Holland Wright

Uncle James was a kind, wonderful, funny man. When I was growing up, I was always excited when he stopped by our house to visit. He will be remembered forever.

“ Best Uncle EVER! As a history nut his tales of being a WWII tail-gunner were the best. His plane crash in Pennington Gap, VA and the recovery of the plane - a once in a lifetime adventure for a teenager and his Dad. The townsfolk were like a segment right out of Mayberry! They were excited to see the pilot of the downed craft, even a police motorcycle escort off the mountain with the damaged, disassembled single wing aircraft. There was not a shape he couldn't cut in glass! He managed to keep a car for the teens to learn to drive with, boy the the miles we all had before our permanent drivers test.
Uncle James will be missed.
