“ I so remember as a child how Herb and Jane and Eddie would come on Sundays and visit as this was a way of life in the 50's to gather with family on Sundays..

“ I met Jane several years ago, I was working at Baptist Manor where she resided for several years. After finding out she seldom had visitors, due to the fact that she outlived most of them. I became her friend. She was a wonderful and very strong woman. We spent many hours talking and laughing. I have way to many memories to share them all. She shared her life and history with me. I take comfort in knowing that she knew i loved her, but most importantly I will forever be grateful for the joy and happiness she brought to me. I've never known a stronger person. Prayers for all who loved her.
