“ I miss you so much Janet!!!! I just still can't process this. You are so smart and so sweet I am so blessed I had you as a friend, coworker and hair customer. There needs to be more like you in this world. God calls his favorites early!!! I will never ever forget you. My deepest condolences to your girls, parents, family... Although I know that you are still with them! That heart of yours was gold! No matter what you always held your head high, strong and independent and I know for a fact you will be blessed in heaven for the blessings that you shared here on This earth with the ones you love and care for. Rest easy... you accomplished so much here in this tough world! Till I see you again! Love you!

“ This doesn't even feel real to me! Janet was the sweetest person I've ever met. She was always positive, encouraging, thoughtful and so loving. Janet loved her girls and family so very much. This is one of those things I don't understand why, just have to know and trust that God has a good reason. Janet Nestlehutt you were the best of friends, the best mom, you did an amazing job raising two amazing girls! I love you bunches!!

“ I met Janet in the 6th grade and she was and always will be beautiful. She was a kind soul who never hesitated to give a compliment or say kind words. We reconnected on Facebook and I am so thankful. She was a bright star who now shines bright up in heaven. ❤️😭 I am so sorry that she passed away so young. She will forever be missed by all that knew her.

“ I met Janet in High School and was fortunate enough to be reunited with her in January as she began working at Randal Lowe Plumbing. Even though it was only a few months that we worked together, I will treasure the time we had and the laughs we shared.

She was one of the sweetest people I've ever met and I will miss her terribly.

Rest in peace my sweet friend.
