“ Words cannot describe the feeling this news brings. The Chance Family is sending you love and prayers as you transition through this difficult time. God’s plan and God’s time sometimes do not align with ours. It has been said that some angels are taken early when God needs them most. That is hard for us to understand and comprehend as we mourn a loss. For certain, Janet brought love and light to all of those around her. I know that she is smiling down on you, guiding you, and shining her light brightly for you, even in your darkest times. Please hold on to and reflect on the happy memories as those are the most important of all. Peace be with you and God Bless you always. - Scott and Bernie Chance

“ I was introduced to Janet by Hans at a NAACAR race. She was so full of life, always looked for the best in every person and every situation and had so much patience and grace. She was a shining light in Hans' life and made him a better person. Janet will be missed by so many as she touched the heart of everyone she ever met. God has taken you home so you will suffer no more.
