“ Love lives on forever in each of our memories of Janice. May these memories bring comfort to that special place in our hearts. She shared her happiness and love for her family and friends always, and she remains with us every day. I care deeply, and I am remembering you with sympathy.

For those that we truly treasure, the heart never forgets. I will never forget Janice...her kindness, caring, laughter, "lime in the" coke. There are so many other attributes I am reminded of as the days go by. I treasure most the memory of love she felt and expressed for her family. She has seen the light, and it is now radiating around her in that eternal place of happiness.
