“ Please accept my condolences. There is no bond as great as that between a parent and child. When we lose our mom or grandmother we all need comfort.

Perhaps you wonder how can I cope? However over time and with the support of others our grief will soften. My feeling goes out to ones that have loss their mom as I have.

My favorite scripture that helped me is Revelation. 21 : 4 "it reads God shall wipe away all tears from their eye ,and there shall be no more death" Grief can be hard but your special memories can help you cope.
