“ To the Family of Jeff Wingo,

I am sorry to learn of Jeff's passing. Although I had only met Jeff a couple of years ago, I can honestly say we connected as friends the first time we met. Every time we were together, we had a great time. Jeff had a really keen sense of humor and we laughed like kids about the regular ups and downs of life we each encountered. I know that your hearts are broken at his sudden passing, and it is my prayer that the wonderful memories you have of Jeff will sustain you now and in the difficult days ahead.

Peace be with you,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Jeff was a good man who was loved by all who came in contact with him. He always helped everyone who needed it, from fixing a car to giving someone a ride somewhere. Michelle I know you are hurting, and if there is anything I can do for you don't hesitate to ask. Jeff, you will be missed...Rest in Peace.

“ There are just no words. All I know to do is keep the Wingo Family in my prayers. May the God of all peace, & all comfort, gracious & full of unconditional love, wrap His protective arms around each of you during this time of grief & always. May you find comfort in knowing that there are so many who care & are praying for you.

“ Dear Peggy & James,

There are no words of comfort we can offer at a heartbreaking time like this. All we can say is that we grieve with you, and we pray that God will strengthen you in the days ahead. Please know how much we love you. So many others love you too. Lean on that.

Our deepest sympathy,
