

Jennifer Leggett Bannister

March 7, 1955 - December 28, 2024

Jennifer Leggett Bannister, born on March 7, 1955, in Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, England, passed away peacefully on December 28, 2024, at the age of 69. She moved to the United States in 1972, where she built a life characterized by her intelligence, humor, and artistic creativity. Jennifer was truly one of a kind.

Jennifer had a profound love for genealogy, always eager to trace the threads of her ancestry and share stories with her family. Above all, she cherished her family, with a particular fondness for her grandchildren. Her dedication to her family was unwavering, and she found immense joy in their company.

She is survived by her loving husband of 47 years, Kent Bannister, her son Dennis Bannister and his wife Brittany, her daughter Allison Bannister and her partner Taylor Philp, and her cherished grandchildren Harrison, Bryson, and Leland. Additionally, she leaves behind her brother Alan Tolcher and his wife Christine; sisters Angela Vernon and her husband Harold, and Gillian Leggett.

Jennifer's creativity and community spirit were evident in her contributions to local celebrations, as she helped with the Tyrone city floats for parades over many years, delighting countless spectators with her imaginative designs.

Her kindness, humor, and unique perspective on life left an indelible mark on everyone she met. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends, who will honor her memory in a private ceremony at a later date.
