“ Little Denny, Den-Den, was great family man, with a huge heart for others, no matter the circumstance. I have so many colorful memories of you. You touched so many lives in your life, including my own. You and I had many chats and heartfelt discussions in the past. Your words have stayed with me, and I will be forever grateful to have called you family and a friend. You brightened a room, and were never short on making others smile. You were loved by all and brought this world happiness beyond measure. We love you and will forever miss you.

“ Our hearts are very heavy over the much too early departure of our sweet friend, Denny. To us, he was just the greatest next door neighbor for a season, he and his precious wife, Lesley, and the then little adorable Dakota and Savannah, whom we loved watching run around being well taken care of by their dotting parents. Just the sweetest family, with the big gentle giant overseeing them all. May Denny rest in peace, and his loved family be covered with God's love, peace and protection in the days to come. We love you all.
