“ My sweet friend, Jerry. You were literally my oldest friend, known since birth.
I love you, I love the way we'd laugh and banter back and forth - through all the years as though time stood still and we remained those neighborhood friends on Burkhead Drive.
My prayers are for your sweet beautiful girls, may they be protected and held close in God's arms.
RIP JB2 - all my love,
Lisa

“ Here's how I want to describe Jerry: Friend, Brother, giving, intelligent, true Mason & Shriner, organizer, motivator, lecturer and coach. He had a tremendous ability to receive, retain and impart knowledge. A champion. Loved his girls. I could go on and on, I thought the world of him. I'm gonna miss him, he was a true friend.

“ There are no words to express my sorrow. I have known Jerry most of his life, he was a wonderful, caring person. Mackenzie and Ally, I pray that God will wrap His arms around you to feel His love and peace, that only He can give. I feel your pain and one day we will understand it all. If there is anything I can do, let me know. I love you two with all my heart.
