“ Jerry and Violet were such good friends to me for a long time, especially after I lost my husband, Donald Dyche. I always enjoyed spending time with them and enjoyed picking blueberries at their place. They will always have a special place in my heart! Elaine Dyche

Jerry there are so many memories that I could write a book about our meeting and friendship over the past 63 years. Bud and I married in 1960 and he went to work for AWW in September where he met you and you became his brother. You taught him so much about the job because he wanted to quit and you would not let him because he had just gotten married in July 1960. He said he could not learn the job and you said, Yes you can because I am going to work with you. Jerry did as he said he would and Bud worked there for 40 years until his retirement. You loved the Moores and the Moores loved the Hopes and we became family. Lots of hugs and kisses went on between these families, family outings, living next door, raising children and much much more. You and Violet both will be missed and remain in our hearts forever. In Christian Love, Bud, Martha, Susan and Mike.
