“ Pam and Family,

I am deeply saddened to learn of Jessica's passing. Although I have only had the pleasure of meeting Jessica a few times, she was a strikingly beautiful and graceful young lady with a stunning smile. I pray for God's grace and peace upon your family now and always. Rejoice in her presence with God, the ultimate comforter and healer.

*Love and peace always.

“ Pam,

In addition, I just want to mention my admiration of you and what a wonderful mother you have been to Jessica. I know it has been a long journey for you and that you would do it all over again. You truly define what God intended you to be. I can only hope and pray that if God should bless me to be a mom, he will give me strength and character like yours. I'm sorry I couldn't be with you in person today, but you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Take care,

Shanel

“ It was such an honor to have Jessie in chorus at Flat Rock Middle School when she was in the eighth grade! She touched the lives of everyone around her. I loved looking at her smile and hearing her sweet voice! We got to have a benefit concert for her and all the students who participated were touched and honored. It was also a huge blessing to visit your home, Pam, and pray with you and your family with Jessie. I know that she is in the arms of Jesus right now! Comfort and rest to you and your family!

“ Pam and Heather: This news hurts my heart. Jessica had one of the most beautiful smiles and sparks in her eyes that I have ever photographed. It was a joy to meet her. We also lost our sweet Summer on November 11th. When God goes into his garden, he picks his finest flowers. She is now at peace. I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Brenda Richterkessing

“ Family and friends will miss that beautiful smile that Jessica seemed to wear each and every day.

Jessica gave of herself freely and my daughter, Sarah, loved receiving her slightly worn clothing. She made my daughter so happy that she would have fashion shows over the years.

This world has lost a beautiful young lady, but heaven has gained a new sparkling angel.

"When you were born you cried and the world rejoiced. Live your life so that when you die, the world cries and you rejoice!"

May the Lord ease your pain and in time change your tears into treasured memories that bring you joy.

“ This is one of the most beautiful young women I've ever met, in all aspects. She became great friends with my daughter Laura and stared this horrible disease right in the eye, fightin so, so hard. Cancer didn't win. In fact, her and Laura are probably on the beach somewhere right now, enjoying their new lives!

I can speak from experience, I'm more at peace because I know they are no longer in pain, no longer having to deal with the emotional and physical roller coaster of this hell. Jessica influenced thousands of lives with that great big smile and her positive attitude. She will always be in my heart, along with her wonderful family.

“ Every time I think about Jessica's great spirit; her huge smile; and how much true love she had for Jesus; I can't help but get a smile on my face. Very inspiring; so incredibly awesome to know someone could go through as much as Jessica did yet remain so trusting and faithful through it all. I know Jessica is in heaven ... no doubt ... and know that she is one of the most prized angels there ever was. Heaven has to be a changed place today because of Jessica. The remembrance of her sweet, positive spirit can't help but bring peace and joy to my heart. She will be missed dearly, but the memory of this sweet angel will always put a smile on my face.
