“ Today was a sad day for me!!! I found out that a friend has went home to be with the lord. This was a beautiful woman inside and out. She loved her kids, grandkids, and her dog deeply. She always talked about how good her kids and son-in-law was to her. Even made joke's about how he retired to take care of her. I heard stories from milkshakes, weddings, and even riding to look at lights with the grandkids. I enjoyed the stories and loved how her face light up telling them. She missed her husband , but was thankful to have good family around her. She always talked about Casper and didn't know what she would do without him. Well... here's to you. I hope you are enjoying your time with your husband. I know you are now the guardian angels to your love ones. Forever missed by many. Rest easy my friend. :(

“ To Jimmie's family:

My family's condolences to you all. We grew up together in Palmetto, Georgia attending First Methodist Church. Jimmie's entire family (her parents, sisters and brother) were a big part of our church, and, as youths, we spent many enjoyable and memorable times together in MYF, youth activities, and, in sharing great meals. What a gracious and encouraging family to have been part of our youth in that wonderful faith community.

All best wishes to you and that God holds you close.

We were classmates from elementary school through 12th grade. I know she is now whole again and with Allen. My deepest sympathy for all her family and friends.*
