“ Jim I remember when we were small children and there were four of us, and we all live in a foster home. As Time passed by Diane left, you left, and then Rick left. I realized I was all alone and hated it so bad. You travel many many states and you got married head for children life seems like it was good. But tragedy struck when you lost your first and only daughter, and you took a change your life seems very trouble and most of the time I'm happy. Then tragedy struck again when you lost one of your sons and, you seem to take a chance again. At that point you became a little more withdrawn and your life seemed troubled and stressful. But you know what I just wanted you to know I loved you all my life and I will continue to love you it was my pleasure to have you in my home. Love with all my heart your sister Brenda

“ Dear Jimbo,
I loved you like my own brother especially when you called me sis. I know that you are in a special place. You are right there with your daddy and two brothers. Heaven will not be the same place without you and your brothers. One day we will all be together before you know it. Meanwhile, I will think of you daily.
I love you.
Your sis (Peggy)

“ Uncle Jimmy, God bless you buddy. The stories of my life that I have shared with my own kids put you smack dab in the middle on many occasions. Right down to cutting the cord end off a brand new saw before you used it. So you would not do it when you did use it for the first time. It's things like that you did, that made everlasting impressions on me. Heaven is getting a gem. Having all memorable times with my Aunts and Uncles has made me a very fortunate person. You rank at the top. Tell everyone up there we are all fine. Duncan

“ My dearest brother, words can never express what you meant to me & my family, and wife. Nancy has always said "Jimmy Lawhorne was a humble person with the biggest heart, ever" Things never came easy for you; seems like someone that had to struggle so hard for what life offered, but you were a survivor. Without a doubt we'll know that we have been revived when we shall leave this place. Sweet, sweet spirit.

“ Uncle Jimmy,
We can all attest that you provided inspiration for everyone in the family. You were a strong human being. You and I did not get to spend time like I would have hoped for during a journey called life, but I will always cherish the moments that we did. You were and are loved by everyone that was around you and we will miss your presence very much. Say hello to my mother for me and all our lost members of this family. Your nephew, Brandon
