“ Our hearts are saddened by your passing, but we know you're in a far better place. I'm so thankful for that last hug on Sunday. Until we meet again, RIP my cherished friend.
No matter who sits in front of me in church, I'll always think of that as Jim's seat.

“ When we lived in Fairburn, Jim was our neighbor and friend. He grew beautiful orchids and loved to share them. Jim not only shared the beauty of flowers, but he shared the beauty of God's love with all he met. Like the colorful blooms of the orchid fade only to be reborn again, his life has faded here on earth only to be reborn in his heavenly home. So Darlene, Perry, Jannelle, and family it is not "good-bye", but "farewell until we meet again".

“ He was a friend, brother, father, & at times a mentor to me. I truly loved him for all the things he represented; a good father, husband, grandfather, & most of all a wonderful example for all to follow.

“ We will miss you Jim ,we know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We pray for your family for the comfort and for the knowledge that they know you are no longer in pain rather breathing big for breaths and probably teasing somebody up in heaven. You were a true servant of the Lord thank you for that example .
