“ Uncle Al & family, I am so sorry for your loss. It has been a long time since I saw Aunt Joan but I remember the week I spent with the two of you when I was just a little girl. I cooked dinner one night & she just couldn't believe I knew how to cook at such a young age. That was a special week in my life. She was a lovely lady & will be missed. I love you & God bless the entire family.

“ Even though it’s been many years since I saw Joan, she’ll always remain in my heart as Aunt Joan. I recall many times when she and AL would come to our house to visit the family. I will always remember one Christmas Eve when they came. I was in bed but when I heard their voices, I jumped up and went to the living room. Uncle AL assured me that Santa had not come and I should go back to bed. Of course the next thing I heard was Joan’s loud and very distinct laugh, which characterized her every time I saw her. She was a beautiful lady and was always kind to our family. May God continue to bless each family member and each friend as you journey down the path that lies ahead.

“ Dear Lisa and Lee,

I will always cherish our visits and friendship our family had with your mom. When our family first moved to the subdivision, I would see this small person working from morning to night digging, planting and pulling weeds and thought where does she get all that energy. As the days went by I finely met your mom and fell in love with her kindness, laughs and stories. Boy, was she funny talking about her childhood and your childhood growing up because she was so proud of you Lisa and Lee. When she became a grandparent on my goodness she loved Andrew and Avery. My parents and sisters loved Joan as well and when they had a chance to visit your mom everyone was so excited to see each other. Laughter and sharing stories sometimes went on and on. Lisa, they were so excited to visit Joan and you. My family became close to your family which I value that friendship and love toward your mom. Joan was straight forward, so you always knew just how she felt, no matter what topic we talked about and then Joan was one of the sweetest person you would ever want to meet. She was the type person that would take the shirt off her back if someone needed it. What a wonder cook she was. Charles was always excited when Joan would send food down our way because she was such a good cook and he loved her cakes and sometimes a slice of pie. The day she moved was so sad for me but I knew it was in her best interest. I might not have visited her after the move but our phone calls I will always cherish. I will never forget her smile and laughter. God has welcomed Joan, where tears are no more and suffering and pain has ended. Now there is great joy and peaceful rest in God gracious presence. Rest in peace.
