“ Thank you Randy! Thank you for loving Joyce! Thank you for loving life! Thank you for coming to Georgia! Thank you for making Fayetteville a better place! Thank you for embracing all the new friends from dance class! It is often said that “... heartache is the price we pay for loving.” Queen Elisabeth was fond of that and we are all indeed heart broken! But while our heartache is real, so is the profound realization that what we all had with you was priceless! And eternal! We learned that love was priceless and eternal from Jesus, but we saw it in you! Love you Randy, see you on the other side brother! Chandy & Mike
