“ I remember when Alice Jean and David were first married, They were living in an apartment in College Park or Riverdale and Raymond and I went with them to see the play "Fiddler on The Roof", Also remember David loved photography and he took pictures of the couples at First Baptist Cliftondale when we had a service to renew our wedding vows, David was a quiet man and you could tell he really loved our church, He will be missed by all. Alice Jean we love you and appreciate you very much!! God bless you and your family.
