“ Oh, Claire, David and Angela, what a shock for us to learn of your dad’s death! I cannot imagine how difficult it is for you and your families to lose both parents so close together. John D. was so good about keeping the Conlin cousins connected. Our love reaches out to you and your families.

“ John, you are now home with Janis, your wife and both in the kingdom of heaven with the Lord Jesus Christ. You and I have been friends for approx 26 years with the Knights of Columbus in Hapeville. We were bartenders for several events especially at Christmas time. We played poker at the hall and your house for many years. Peace my good friend.
