“ Although I never had the pleasure to meet your loved one, I'm so sorry for your loss. Please know the God's word the Bible provides so many promises that we can look forward too in the future. Notice John 5:28 it states, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". My hopes are that this bring you some comfort during this sad and difficult time.

“ Im praying for you all. John was a great person and boss/friend. I would not have still been at SEPG if not for his encouraging words. I read this poem and wanted to share it with you all in remembrance of John:

Dont think of him as gone away

His journeys just begun.

Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort

where there are no days and no years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched. For nothing loved is ever lost, and he was loved so much.
