Gail,

I was so sorry to hear about Jack. I do wish I could have been there for you at the visitation and service but I was out of town all last week. My prayers are for you and your family to find peace.

Love,

Frankie

Our prayers go out to the Wilson family, we would like to express our condolences at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this, the scripture I would like to share is at Revelation 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

Gail-So sorry to hear of Jack's passing (via Facebook). I wish I had known earlier...I would have loved to support you at the visitation and/or service. I know you and Jack persevered together for many years since the start of his illness. Know that you are loved and let me know if there is anything I can do for you! My prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time!

“ Thinking about you all this weekend. It is hard to believe that tomorrow will be one year since Jack passed. I know you miss him everyday and the pain of your loss will never heal, but I pray that you find peace in knowing Jack is no longer suffering but now fully restored and sitting at the foot of Jesus! May this date not hold sad memories for you, but fond memories of a wonderful man who lead a great life full of a beautiful, loving family and lots of wonderful friends. I am grateful that God has put your whole family in our lives and look forward to many years together. God bless you.
