When I first met my Brother in law Johnny, I knew he was filled with Lots of love for his family, and he made me feel so welcome to my Georgia family. He may not be on this earth, but God had his place all ready and waiting for him . He will always be so very special to me. I cherish the times we had together especially when he came visit us in Louisiana.

*Rest In Peace Johnny
Love you always

“ The Burrell Family,
I was deeply saddened of the passing of “my Uncle!” Please except our deepest condolences! We were only able to speak by phone, but I knew immediately he was a sweet, compassionate and loving person. May our Lord comfort and bring each of you solace as you navigate through this very difficult time. He would always tell me he loved me...I love you too Uncle Johnny ❤️
