“ It has taken me some time to internalize the loss of my friend. Jonie was so special in every way. I remember the first thing she ever said to me (her being ornery of course). She is the only person that has ever grabbed my ear to let me know that I wasn't listening to her. She is also the only person that I know of to whom a nurse at an emergency room tells her, "you're not sick. you're too mean to be sick." Those of you who knew Jonie know EXACTLY to what that male nurse was referring. Jonie corrected my writing grammar and punctuation, always. I would pester Jonie to see if she needed help completing a task and she would say, "If you would leave me alone, I could get this done." I can tell many more stories about Jonie. I just miss my friend so very much. I hear her voice in my head and smile...when I pass on to Heaven, I will count Jonie as one of my truest friends.

“ I knew Jonie only for a short while.
I know she is sleeping peacefully, free of all bodily pain.
Praying for comfort to all she left behind.

“ I was saddened to hear about Jonie's passing. We were friends at MD Collins and I'll always remember her beautiful smile and wonderful personality. I pray that God gives peace and comfort to her family as you move through this difficult time.

“ Nannette, Gene, & Tracy,
My earliest memories of friendship and fun times include you all. My heart was broken to hear of Jonie's suffering and now for your loss. A wise Pastor and friend of mine once said, "God always heals, some times in this life, and some times in the next." I am thankful that Jonie is now healed. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
