“ Its been over 4 years since you died and I'm still trying to put the pieces back together. Since you died, I met a girl, I got a great job, I got married, I moved across the world... and I keep carrying you with me. You were more than my Pa... you were my dad when no one else stepped up to the plate. You were brave, kind, tough, sweet, and passionately funny. I haven't been the same since you left... I'm not sure if I ever will be again. I knew the day would come but it's not easy to say goodbye to your best friend, father and pa all in one sitting.

I miss you, old man. Wherever you are in the sky... please know I miss you and I really love you.

*Your best buddy,
Matt*

“ Joe worked with my brother in the cabinet business. I always enjoyed talking to Joe. He was a sweet and generous man and a great sense of humor. He loved our family and we loved him. He will truly be missed. Praying for all of Joe's Family that you find Peace and Comfort in your Loss. The Barnett Family.

“ Tim and I are heartbroken over the loss of Joe. He was an old and dear family friend who was really more like family to us than just a friend. He was so comforting to us when our Daddy passed a couple of years ago and we are going to miss him greatly. We used to enjoy listening to him telling old stories of he and Daddy and their escapades! Life will not be the same without him. Please know that your family are in our prayers and that we are here if you need a shoulder to cry on.

“ Joe Barkwell was truly a "one in a million" kind of guy. He was down to earth, friendly, and pleasant in all my dealings with him. He had a great sense of humor and got along well with others. I've known Joe as a client of my financial planning practice for over 25 years, but most importantly, he became my friend. He was a great guy who will surely be missed by a number of people. We will all treasure some great memories of Joe---memories that noone can ever take away from us. My prayer is for God's peace and comfort to surround his family at this time of grieving his loss, yet celebrating his life. May God bless the Barkwell family. Sincerely, K. Scott Brandenburg
