“ Joseph was a funny guy. Even as a kid, he had away to make you laugh. One he came to spend the night with me night and he wanted to show watch the little rascals so we did, mind you it's 12:30am. Then Jo just wanted to watch the part where Alfalfa farted out bubbles from drinking a glass of soapy water so we watch that clip over and over until he fell asleep. The next day I went to wake him for breakfast, just to find him in the bed with his head and his legs cross with a grin like he is awake. 🙏 My young friend will be missed by many.

“ My prayers are with you all during this difficult time. I first met Joseph in our middle school band class and his personality was phenomenal! We always cracked jokes in class and he constantly made fun of my laugh and told me it very was contagious. He started calling me Chowder in eighth grade, and from that point on I rarely heard him say my real name. Our friendship started in middle school and it lasted after our high school graduation. The Langston Hughes Marching Band will truly miss him and he will forever be a Marching Panther.
