“ Best Neighbors/Friends I could have ever asked for!! One of many touching memories is when Bryan and J.P. had the constant giggles at the dinner table. Greg, Pam and I were patient but one occasion sent us all over the edge and Greg handled it very well! Greg was a great friend!! He always welcomed us! We had many, many good times and laughs!!

Greg, I hope you meet up with J.P. in Heaven!! He passed on June 2, 2017.

“ I only worked with Greg for two years, but when I think back on my time with NCR, Greg was always someone I thought about and smiled. Greg was someone I could always ask for help or go to for advice, and as someone just starting out in my career that was something I really appreciated. I am sad to hear he is gone, but I am thankful that I met and worked with him all those years ago. My condolences to his family and friends.

“ The morning light rose above the horizon and the bell rang calling you home. The sorrow we feel is because we miss you but the joy of knowing you left a broken down human body and gained your heavenly wings. We hold the memories of you tight and dearly. The days that have followed have been filled with everyone sharing how you touched each of us in different ways. For Aunt Pam you were her rock, protector, husband, friend and father of three. To others you were the shy guy, and to some you were the fun loving joking and playing around. For April and Brian you were their rock, protector and Daddy. For me my greatest memory was always playing in the front yard or you getting me into trouble with Aunt Pam and my parents.

We will all miss you in different ways but one thing is for sure.. We will all miss your passion for the Bull Dawgs UGA....your warmth and tenderness... quiet but firm ways. I love you Uncle Greg and I know you are with each of us everyday.

The Bell rang and called you home. You said your goodbyes and rose to Heaven. The gates opened to reveal the glory that waited for you. Steven, your infant son, so tiny the last time you saw him...stands with his arms open "Welcome home Daddy, I have waited for 35 years to see you again." Your Father stands next to "welcome home his son". The lead you down to a large table a feast for you. Gathered there are all the loved ones and friends that have gone before you.

One last moment of hesitation, the look back over your shoulder....to the life on Earth. A hand touched your shoulder and a voice deep but soft and gentle says " No more fear my Child, they will each find a way through the sorrow and see you again one day. I have given you wings to fly down and be the breeze that blows gently over each of them. The red bird perched on the tree limb looking in on each of them. The warmth they will find sharing the memories with each other. Fear not my son, they will be fine. They have you as their guardian angel.

May everyone find comfort and joy in each memory you share. May the Lord comfort and keep each of you. For though Greg left this earth, he lives eternally in heaven and with each of us.

All my Love to Aunt Pam, Brian, April and families, Love Tonia (niece)

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Greg through his high school years. He was an awesome pitcher for the Griffin Eagles and I remember when he made the winning free throws against the #1 ranked Forest Park basketball team for Griffin. We had the opportunity to play softball together at NCR. We always enjoyed talking high school sports. A great friend and an even greater person. Through Greg I got to know his sweet wife Pam. My heart hurts to learn of his passing. Prayers to Mrs. Marjorie, Pam and the entire family.

“ I worked with Greg for many years at NCR. He was a special friend and co-worker. Even though it's been 23 years since I worked there, I haven't forgotten the friends I worked with. The last time I spoke with Greg, (a few years back) I told him I would come by and have lunch with them one day. Sadly that never happened. My prayers are with Pam and the family in this time of sorrow. I know he will be missed.

“ Had the pleasure of attending school with Greg from seventh through twelfth grades. Although I haven't seen Greg since graduation (GHS Class of 1969), I have many fond memories of him & our school days. I offer my deepest condolences to all who loved Greg & pray that Our Heavenly Father will wrap them in His loving arms & give them strength, comfort & peace. Rest in Peace, Greg.

“ Brenda and I had the privilege to work with Greg at NCR for many years, with Brenda working in the Finance department with Greg. He loved his Bulldogs and knew his business when it came to Finance. We enjoyed happy times going to Six Flags in the '90's with our families. Greg will truly be missed. Our prayers are extended to Pam and all of the family remembering that Greg is now in a much better place and pain-free.
