He was later a member of East Point Christian, and Peachtree City Christian Church.

Joe was the owner and operator of Pet's World for over 30 years and in the pet business for over 63 years. He never retired and was working at the pet shop up until the day before he went into the hospital. He had many faithful patrons who had been coming to the store since they were kids, and continued as grown-ups bringing their own children. Everyone loved "Mr. Joe, and Mama."

Throughout his life he loved woodworking, taxidermy, coin collecting, and cutting his beloved opals! He loved to go to the Varsity and Fresh-Air Barbecue, and went to every Russell High School gathering and reunion he could, and every family event and party! He was so loved by his family and will be greatly missed!

“ I'm so incredibly sorry to hear of the passing of Joe. My prayers go out to all his family, children and wonderful wife. I've known Joe and been a loyal customer at Petsworld since my pre-teen years and am now 46. We wouldn't do business anywhere else. Joe was such a wonderful man and had such a love for animals.

“ Joe and I weren't close at Russell, but we agreed when we met up later on at a Reunion that we should have been. I remember his pet coon(s) and ready smile. A good man--even then (in 1956-7).

“ Becky,

My heart goes out to you and your entire family. I hadn't seen you in many years until my Mother's funeral four years ago. I haven't lived in Georgia for many years but my Mother kept me up to date with many of her Westside family. She loved both of you so very much and at her funeral, I saw that it was more than mutual.

Thank you both for being such good friends to her for so many years.

I know that Joe will be missed terribly; what a fine man.

With heartfelt love and condolences,

“ I have known Joe and Becky for about 53 years. Our children grew up together and we enjoyed many fun times together. Joe was a good Christian man who lived his life doing things he loved. His love for animals was something you discovered as soon as you met him. Prayers for Becky, Renee and Lynn and his entire family.
