She enjoyed reading the newspaper, keeping herself informed and engaged with the world around her. She also delighted in people watching and cherished simple pleasures, such as savoring meals from Wendy's.

Joy was a dedicated volunteer in the nursery at the First Baptist Church of College Park for 30 years, where she cared for and nurtured young children, leaving a lasting impact on the lives of many families.

She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, John Davis Webb, Jr., and her son, Terry Webb. Her memory will forever be cherished by her surviving family, including her daughter, Debbie Holtzclaw; sons, Tommy Sills (Betty Jean), David Sills (Yvonne), and Jeff Thomas (Angie Long); 11 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; 6 great-great-grandchildren; and her sister, Betty Jo Hall.
