“ Pastored Sis. Joyce and Bro. Steve Phillips in the mid 70’s - these are some of the best people I have ever known - Sis. Joyce was and is a Proverbs 31 “virtuous woman” - loved her family and was loved by her family - truly a born-again Christian - she will be missed - we will meet you again in heaven

“ To my Henry cousins. So, so many of my childhood memories include you all, I wonder just how many hours we played outside? And walking to and from school when we lived down on Hwy 138. They are always good memories for me of all of you and your parents, especially your mom and her grape popsicles. My heart surely goes out to you for losing your sister. To Steve and family - our sincerest condolences on your loss. Having lived away for so long, I never really got to know you but have heard of how ill Joyce was. May God comfort you at this time..
