“ I always enjoyed aunt Joyce & uncle Tom coming to visit especially during Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas. We would sit around the table and carry on ,Having a cheerful time of conversation. aunt Joyce's laughter would fill the room with glee and will always be remembered with such good family time's, I will always carry those thought's in my mind forever. I will always miss my aunt Joyce, rest in peace.

“Joyce was the best Sisterinlaw you could ever want , sweet ,kind , loving and caring
My brother Tommy hit the jackpot when he met her and they were married . Now they are together again and are suffering no more . I miss them both and send prayers that God will give everyone the strength to know she is home now.
