“ Joyce and Lowell were my neighbors for many years in Hapeville. They were always so kind and helpful to my family. My children loved to play with their grandsons when they visited because there were not many children on our street. I treasure my talks with Joyce about the Lord and life. She will be missed here but I know Lowell is happy. Prayers for the family for their loss.

“ I can still remember going to see her and Lowell in Hapeville and watching the never ending story! I spent many days there being with both her and Lowell and my grandparents! She always treated me as if I was one of her own! Love you Joyce! I know Lowell was waiting by the gates of Heaven with arms wide open :)
