“ What I remember most about Joyce is the way she had nothing but love for us Flints and for the rest of her family. Every one of us were always welcome at her home, and I remember her unconditional acceptance (despite the fact that we Flints marched on Washington to protest the war in Vietnam when Joyce's side of the family were almost all proud military!!!). We all loved each other thru those and other differences, and I hope and I know that we will always be that way.

Rest in peace Joyce, and I wish peace to the rest of our family who will be missing her very much in the coming months.
