“ My Greetings and Condolences to the Family of Ruth Kitler, of whom she was always very proud. I have many special memories of visiting Bill and Ruth at their home in Cumberland. I especially remember her as very caring and a truly individual, wonderful human being; one whose life as a Christian was a model to us all. She always sought to build others up through encouragement and sage advice, putting their needs before her own. I am blessed to celebrate the memory of her, of a life well lived.
